Abrahams, Bertram.
Unilateral paralysis of the third nerve 294

Babes, Victor, and Marinesco, G.
Atlas der pathologischen Histologie des Nervensystems (Note on) ... 404

Bailey, Pearce.
Diseases of the nervous system resulting from accident and injury (Note on) 401

Bárány, Robert.
Untersuchungen über den vom Vestibular-Apparat des Ohres reflektorisch ausgelösten rhythmischen Nystagmus und seine Begleiterscheinungen. (Ein Beitrag zur Physiologie und Pathologie des Bogengangapparates (Review) 383

Barlow, Sir Thomas.
On some of the nervous complications of the specific fevers... ... 303

Bateson, W.
An address on Mendelian heredity and its application to man ... 157

Batten, F. E.
Case of brachial plexus lesion 413
Tumour of the cerebellum in a dog, associated with forced movements 494

Batten, Rayner.
Congenital defect of left cervico-ocular sympathetic 414
Congenital paralysis of left external rectus 293
Loss of upward movements, limitation of downward movements, partial iridoplegia, optic neuritis 296

Beevor, Charles E.
On the movements of the tongue in hemiplegia, and from cortical stimulation—an apparent paradox; with a note on the movements of the tongue after paralysis of one hypoglossal nerve 487
Case of myasthenia gravis... 409
Pseudo-bulbar paralysis 408

PAGE

Brouardel, P.
Opium, morphine et cocaine (Note on) 291

Bruce, Lewis C.
Studies in clinical psychiatry (Note on) 404

Buzzard, Dr.
Disseminated sclerosis and functional paraplegia occuring in two sisters 407

Buzzard, E. Farquhar.
The cerebellar attitude and the dentate nuclei... 508

Cameron, John.
The development of the vertebrate nerve-cell : a cytological study of the neuroblast-nucleus 332

Campbell, A. W.
Histological studies on the localisation of cerebral function (Review) 265

Clarke, J. Michell.
Hysteria and neurasthenia (Note on) 290
Two specimens of cerebral tumour illustrating the production of hemiplegia of apoplectic onset by hæmorrhage into a tumour ; in one of the cases without any previous symptoms 419

Coats, George, and Parsons, J. Herbert.
A case of orbital encephalocele with unique malformations of the brain and eye 209

Collier, J. S.
Case of possible vascular lesion of optic thalamus 412

Cramer, A.
Die Nervosität, ihre Ursachen, Erscheinungen und Behandlung (Note on) 402

Cushing, Harvey.
The sensory distribution of the fifth cranial nerve (Review) ... 379

Dudgeon, L. S.
Acute diphtheritic toxæmia with special reference to acute cardiac failure 153
A study of the various changes which occur in the tissue in acute diphtheritic toxæmia, more especially in reference to "acute cardiac failure" 227

Edinger, Professor L.
A preliminary note on the comparative anatomy of the cerebellum 483

Fisher, J. Herbert.
Paralysis of convergence of optic axes of sudden onset, associated with right brachial monoplegia and right facial paralysis... ... 300

Förster, Otfrid.
Die Kontracturen bei den Erkrankungen der Pyramidenbahn (Note on) 403

Fournier, Alfred, and Raymond, F.
Paralysie générale et syphilis (Note on) 403

Frazier, Charles H., Mills, Charles K., Schweinitz, George E. de, Messenberg, T. H., Lodholz, Edward.
Tumours of the cerebellum (Review) 396

PAGE

Fürnrohr, Wilhelm.
Die Röntgenstrahlen im Dienste der Neurologie (Note on) 401

Fursac, J. Rogues de.
Manual of psychiatry (Note on) 291

Gardner, Eric.
A family in which some of the signs of Friedreich's ataxy appeared discretely 112

Grünbaum, Otto.
Recurrent third nerve paralysis 296

Guthrie, Leonard.
Paralysis of ocular sympathetic 298

Head, Henry, and Thompson, Theodore.
The grouping of afferent impulses within the spinal cord 537

Holmes, Gordon.
On the relation between loss of function and structural change in focal lesions of the central nervous system, with special reference to secondary degeneration 514

Holmes, Gordon, and Parsons, J. H.
The pathological anatomy of amaurotic family idiocy 153

Holmes, Gordon, Poynton, F. J., and Parsons, J. H.
A contribution to the study of amaurotic family idiocy 180

Horsley, Sir Victor.
Note on the tænia pontis 28
On Dr. Hughlings Jackson's views of the functions of the cerebellum as illustrated by recent research 446

Horsley, Sir Victor, and Russel, Colin K.
Note on apparent re-representation in the cerebral cortex of the type of sensory representation as it exists in the spinal cord 137

Horsley, Sir Victor, and Slinger R. Townley.
Upon the orientation of points in space by the muscular, arthrodial, and tactile senses of the upper limbs in normal individuals and in blind persons 1

Howell, C. M. Hinds.
Three cases illustrating the effects of cervical ribs 410

Hutchinson, J., junr.
The surgical treatment of facial neuralgia (Review) 378

Jackson, J. Hughlings.
Case of tumour of the middle lobe of the cerebellum. Cerebellar attitude. No tetanus-like seizures. General remarks on the cerebellar attitude (1872) 441
Case of tumour of the middle lobe of the cerebellum—cerebellar paralysis with rigidity (cerebellar attitude)—occasional tetanus-like seizures 425

Jastrow, Joseph.
The Subconscious (Note on) 404

Johnston, George.
Myasthenia gravis with double ptosis and diplopia 297

PAGE

Jones, H. Lewis.
Medical electricity (Note on) 401

Knapp, Albert.
Die polyneuritischen Psychosen (Note on) 403

Knapp, Philip Coombs.
The mental symptoms of cerebral tumour 35

Lawson, Arnold.
Vertical paretic strabismus 299

Liepmann, D. H.
Uber Störungen des Handelns bei Gehirnkranken (Note on) ... 403

Lodholz, Edward. Mills, Charles K., Frazier, Charles H., Schweinitz, George E. de, Messenberg, T. H.
Tumours of the cerebellum (Review) 396

Marcus, C.
Two cases of partial iridoplegia with peculiar pupil phenomenon, in a boy aged 12, and in a woman aged 32 293

Marinesco, G., and Babes, Victor.
Atlas der pathologischen Histologie des Nervensystems (Note on) ... 404

May, W. Page.
The afferent path 742

Mayou, Mr.
Congenital double ptosis with defective upward movement in both eyes, and concomitant convergent strabismus 293

Mercier, Charles.
Criminal responsibility (Review) 280

Messenberg, T. H., Mills, Charles K., Frazier, Charles H., Schweinitz, George E. de, Lodholz, Edward.
Tumours of the cerebellum (Review) 396

Mills, Charles K., Frazier, Charles H., Schweinitz, George E. de, Messenberg, T. H., Lodholz, Edward.
Tumours of the cerebellum (Review) 396

Oppenheim, D. H.
Lehrbuch der Nervenkrankheiten für Aerzte und Studirende (Review) 393

Ormerod, Dr. (shown by Jones, Carmalt).
Left hemiplegia, lesion in right crus cerebri, also muscular wasting, and unusual respiratory asymmetry 418
Lesions, probably hæmorrhagic, in lumbar cord; with intracranial arterial degeneration 417

Palmer, Fred. S.
Friedreich's ataxia? (advanced stage) with an interesting family history 406

Parsons, J. H.
Bilateral nuclear sixth paralysis 298

Parsons, J. Herbert, and Coats, George.

PAGE

Parsons, J. H., and Holmes, Gordon.
The pathological anatomy of amaurotic family idiocy 153

Parsons, J. H., Poynton, F. J., and Holmes, Gordon.
A contribution to the study of amaurotic family idiocy 180

Paton, Stewart.
Psychiatry: A text-book for students and physicians (Note on) ... 290

Potts, W. J.
A case of Friedreich's disease with onset late in life 405

Poynton, F. J., Parsons, J. H., and Holmes, Gordon.
A contribution to the study of amaurotic family idiocy 180

Prince, Morton.
The dissociation of a personality: a biographical study in abnormal psychology (Note on) 291
The Journal of Psychology (Note on) 292

Raymond, F., and Fournier, Alfred.
Paralysie générale et syphilis (Note on) 403

Reid, A. Christie.
Miners' nystagmus 363

Rolleston, J. D.
The abdominal reflex in enteric fever 99

Russel, Colin K., and Horsley, Sir Victor.
Note on apparent re-representation in the cerebral cortex of the type of sensory representation as it exists in the spinal cord ... 137

Savill, Thomas D.
Clinical lectures on neurasthenia (Note on) 402

Scheinitz, George E. de, Mills, Charles K., Frazier, Charles H., Messenberg, T. H., Lodholz, Edward.
Tumours of the cerebellum (Review) 396

Sherrington, C. S.
On the proprio-ceptive system, especially in its reflex aspect .. 467

Slinger, R. Townley, and Horsley, Sir Victor.
Upon the orientation of points in space by the muscular, arthrodial, and tactile senses of the upper limbs in normal individuals and in blind persons 1

Sutherland, G. A.
Case in which symptoms of intracranial tumour were relieved by trephining 413

Taylor, James.
A case of Friedreich's disease, with double optic atrophy 407
Case in which symptoms of intracranial growth were relieved by trephining 412

Thompson, Theodore, and Head, Henry.
The grouping of afferent impulses within the spinal cord 537

Turner, John.
A study of the minute structure of the olfactory lobe and cornu ammonis, as revealed by the pseudo-vital method 57

PAGE

Walter, A. E.

X-rays in general practice (Note on) 401

Wickman, Ivar.

Studien über Poliomyelitis acuta (Note on) 402

Wilson, S. A. K.

A case of spasmodic torticollis, with involvement of the abdominal muscles 414

Case of disseminated sclerosis, with weakness of each internal rectus and nystagmus, on lateral deviation limited to the outer eye ... 298

Case of Friedreich's ataxia, with, among other eye symptoms, weakness of conjugate downward movement 297

Case of migraine ophthalmoplégique 297

Case of sensory aphasia 416

Case of spasm of the diaphragm 415

Ectopia pupillæ in certain mesencephalic lesions 524

Ziehen, Th.

Leitfaden der physiologischen Psychologie in 15 Vorlesungen (Note on) 291

INDEX OF SUBJECTS.

Abdominal muscles, case of spasmodic torticollis with involvement of the. S. A. K. Wilson 414 reflex in enteric fever. J. D. Rolleston 99

Adrenal gland in acute diphtheritic toxæmia. Leonard S. Dudgeon ... 246

Afferent impulses, grouping of, within the spinal cord. Henry Head and Theodore Thompson 537 paths. W. Page May 742

Amaurotic family idiocy, a contribution to the study of. F. J. Poynton, J. H. Parsons, and Gordon Holmes 180 family idiocy, the pathological anatomy of. Gordon Holmes and J. H. Parsons 153

Antitoxin, effects of, in modifying the action of the toxin in diphtheria. Leonard S. Dudgeon 250

Aphasia, case of sensory. S. A. K. Wilson... 416

Archives of pathological institute of the London Hospital, vol. i. (Note on) 402

Arthrodial, muscular, and tactile senses of the upper limbs, upon the orientation of points in space by the, in normal individuals and in blind persons. R. Townley Slinger and Sir Victor Horsley... 1

Ataxy, Friedreich's, a family in which some of the signs appeared discretely. Eric Gardner 112

Atlas der pathologischen Histologie des Nervensystems. Victor Babes and G. Marinesco (Note on) 404

Auditory areas and temporal lobe. A. W. Campbell. (Review) ... 272

Bacillus of diphtheria, summary of my observations on the changes produced in the tissues by the toxins of the. Leonard S. Dudgeon 259

Bladder in acute diphtheritic toxæmia. Leonard S. Dudgeon 244

Blind persons and normal individuals, upon the orientation of points in space by the muscular, arthrodial, and tactile senses of the upper limbs in. H. Townley Slinger and Sir Victor Horsley ... 1

Blood in acute diphtheritic toxæmia. Leonard S. Dudgeon 248

Brachial monoplegia, right and right facial paralysis associated with paralysis of convergence of optic axes of sudden onset. J. Herbert Fisher... 300 plexus lesion, case of. F. E. Batten 413

Brain and eye, case of orbital encephalocele with unique malformations of the. J. Herbert Parsons and George Coats 209 in acute diphtheritic toxæmia. Leonard S. Dudgeon 248

Cardiac failure, acute, acute diphtheritic toxæmia with special reference to. L. S. Dudgeon 153 failure, acute, a study of the various changes which occur in the tissues in acute diphtheritic toxæmia, more especially in reference to. Leonard S. Dudgeon... 227

Central nervous system, on the relation between loss of function and structural change in focal lesions of the, with special reference to secondary degeneration. Gordon Holmes 514

Cerebellar attitude and the dentate nuclei. E. Farquhar Buzzard ... 508 paralysis with rigidity (cerebellar attitude)—case of tumour of the middle lobe of the cerebellum—occasional tetanus-like seizures. J. Hughlings Jackson... 425

Cerebellum, a preliminary note on the comparative anatomy of the. Professor L. Edinger 483 case of tumour of the middle lobe of the—cerebellar paralysis with rigidity (cerebellar attitude)—occasional tetanus-like seizures. J. Hughlings Jackson... 425 on Dr. Hughlings Jackson's views on the functions of the, as illustrated by recent research. Sir Victor Horsley 446 tumour of the, in a dog, associated with forced movements. F. E. Batten 494 tumour of the middle lobe of the. Cerebellar attitude. No tetanus-like seizures. General remarks on the cerebellar attitude (1872). J. Hughlings Jackson 441
tumours of the. Charles K. Mills, Charles H. Frazier, George E. de Schweinitz, T. H. Messenberg, Edward Lodholz. (Review) 396

Cerebral cortex, note on apparent re-representation in the, of the type of sensory representation as it exists in the spinal cord. Colin K. Russel and Victor Horsley 137 function, histological studies on the localisation of. A. W. Campbell (Review) 265 tumour, the mental symptoms of. Philip Coombs Knapp 35 tumour, two specimens of, illustrating the production of hemiplegia of apoplectic onset by hæmorrhage into a tumour; in one of the cases without any previous symptoms. J. Michell Clarke 419 tumour with sensory fits commencing in middle and ring fingers. Colin K. Russel and Victor Horsley 149

Cervical ribs, three cases illustrating the effects of. C. M. Hinds Howell 410

Cocaine, opium et morphine (Note on). P. Brouardel 291

Columns, posterior, the. W. Page May 759 posterior, the nature of the impulses in the. Henry Head and Theodore Thompson 636

Cornu ammonis and olfactory lobe, a study of the minute structure of the, as revealed by the pseudo-vital method. John Turner ... 57

Cortex, kinæsthetic, representation of tactile sensation elsewhere in the pallium as well as in the. Colin K. Russel and Victor Horsley 139

Cortical fibre arrangement and nerve-cell lamination. A. W. Campbell (Review) 268

Costal cartilage in acute diphtheritic toxæmia. Leonard S. Dudgeon... 247

Cranial nerve, fifth, the sensory distribution of the. Harvey Cushing (Review)... 379

Criminal responsibility. Charles Mercier (Review) 280

Crus cerebri, right, lesion in, left hemiplegia, also muscular wasting, and unusual respiratory asymmetry. Dr. Ormerod. (Shown by Carmalt Jones) 418

Degeneration, secondary, on the relation between loss of function and structural change in focal lesions of the central nervous system, with special reference to. Gordon Holmes 514

PAGE

Dentate nuclei and the cerebellar attitude. E. Farquhar Buzzard ... 508

Diaphragm, case of spasm of. S. A. K. Wilson 415
in acute diphtheritic toxæmia. Leonard S. Dudgeon 241

Diphtheria, summary of my observations on the changes produced in the tissues by the toxins of the bacillus of. Leonard S. Dudgeon... 259

Diphtheritic toxæmia, acute, a study of the various changes which occur in the tissues in, more especially in reference to "acute cardiac failure." Leonard S. Dudgeon 227 toxæmia, acute, a summary of the microscopical appearances in. Leonard S. Dudgeon 237 toxæmia, acute, with special reference to acute cardiac failure. L. S. Dudgeon... 153

Diplopia and double ptosis, myasthenia gravis with. George Johnston 297

Disseminated sclerosis and functional paraplegia occurring in two sisters. Dr. Buzzard... 407 sclerosis, with weakness of each internal rectus and nystagmus, on lateral deviation limited to the outer eye. S. A. K. Wilson ... 298

Ectopia pupillæ in certain mesencephalic lesions. S. A. K. Wilson ... 524

Electricity, medical. H. Lewis Jones (Note on) 401

Encephalocele, orbital, with unique malformations of the brain and eye. J. Herbert Parsons and George Coats. 209

Enteric fever, abdominal reflex in. J. D. Rolleston 99

Eye and brain, case of orbital encephalocele with unique malformations of the. J. Herbert Parsons and George Coats 209

Facial neuralgia, the surgical treatment of. J. Hutchinson, junr. (Review)... 378 paralysis, right, and right brachial monoplegia, associated with paralysis of convergence of optic axes of sudden onset. J. Herbert Parsons 300

Fatty change, nature of, in acute diphtheritic toxæmia. Leonard S. Dudgeon... 254

Fits, sensory, commencing in middle and ring fingers, cerebral tumour with. Colin K. Russel and Sir Victor Horsley 149

Focal lesions of the central nervous system, on the relation between loss of function and structural change in, with special reference to secondary degeneration. Gordon Holmes 514

Friedreich's ataxia ? (advanced stage) with an interesting family history. Fred. S. Palmer 406 ataxia with, among other eye symptoms, weakness of conjugate downward movement. S. A. K. Wilson 297 ataxy, a family in which some of the signs appeared discretely. Eric Gardner 112 disease, case of, with double optic atrophy. James Taylor 407 disease, with onset in late life. W. J. Potts 405

"Frontal and prefrontal areas." A. W. Campbell (Review) 276

Ganglia, cerebro-spinal, structure of. W. Page May 746

Hemiplegia, left, lesion in right crus cerebri, also muscular wasting, and unusual respiratory asymmetry. Dr. Ormerod. (Shown by Carmalt Jones) 418 on the movements of the tongue in, and from cortical stimulation—an apparent paradox; with a note on the movements of the tongue after paralysis of one hypoglossal nerve. Charles E. Beevor 487
